Q1: How closely are you following the 2016 Presidential Election?

- Very closely: 66.7%
- Occasionally: 30.1%
- Rarely: 3.3%
Q2: How closely are you following other federal elections in 2016, such as U.S. Senate and House of Representative races?

- Not at all: 5.7%
- Rarely: 34.1%
- Occasionally: 47.2%
- Very closely: 13%
Q3: The presidential candidates are addressing issues that are important to me and other young adults.
Q4: What most influences your support for a candidate?

- The candidate's platform (key issues and policy priorities): 90.2%
- The candidate's personality: 4.9%
- Endorsements the candidate receives: 0.8%
- Other: 4.1%
Q5: How, if at all, do you see yourself engaging in politics in the future?

- Working with a community group: 44.7%
- Running for office: 21.1%
- Working for an elected official: 12.2%
- Working or volunteering on a campaign: 8.9%
- I do not see myself engaging in politics in the future: 13%
Q6: Have you ever worked/volunteered for a campaign?

- Yes, I would like to do it again: 44.7%
- Yes, but I would not do it again: 7.3%
- No, I'm not interested: 13%
- No, but I would like to do that: 35%
Q7: What barriers do you/your generation face when trying to get involved in the political arena?

- None: 8.1%
- Other: 8.1%
- Not interested in the political process: 8.9%
- Candidates and elected officials don’t want our opinion or involvement: 24.4%
- Don’t understand the political process and issue areas discussed: 17.9%
- Opinion or involvement wouldn’t make a difference: 32.5%
Q8: Where do you get your information about political issues, candidates, and races?

- Television newscasts or radio: 27.6%
- Social Media -- Twitter, Facebook, Reddit, or other platform: 35%
- Print or online: 34.1%
- Word of mouth: 2.4%
- Other: 0.8%
Q9: Educating youth about our government leads to a better-functioning democracy.
Q10: Americans can create social and political change.

- Somewhat Disagree: 0.9%
- Somewhat Agree: 20.3%
- Strongly Agree: 78.9%